Prepare to be scared at All Hallows Eve

Naperville, Ill. — Don't miss two of the most terrifying nights of the year during All Hallows Eve, a unique event based on the scariest literature and events of the 19th century, to be held from 6:30 to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23 and 24 at Naper Settlement, 523 S. Webster St., Naperville. Tickets are $10 per person.

The roots of All Hallows Eve come from an ancient belief that during Halloween, ghosts roamed the earth freely and that the everyday world and the supernatural world were open to each other. During Naper Settlement's All Hallows Eve, the usually calm and quaint 12-acre museum village is completely haunted by spirits, vampires, werewolves, witches and otherworldly creatures of the night. Joining them are some of the most diabolical characters and criminals of the 19th century including Lizzie Borden, Count Dracula, Dr. Frankenstein and others who take up abode in the historic houses and businesses. You never know who might be peering over your shoulder or who might not be...

Rated PG-Creepy, All Hallows Eve is recommended for youth and adults who like a scare. Not recommended for children under 8. One dollar off advance ticket sales are available at Naper Settlement and Naperville retailers including Anderson's Bookshop, Canterbury Shoppe, Country Curtains, Just Ducky and Oswald's Pharmacy. Visit www.napersettlement.museum for more information.
