Learn more about becoming a costumed volunteer at Naper Settlement

Naperville, Ill. — You're never too old to play dress up at Naper Settlement! An adult volunteer information meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 10, at Naper Settlement's Century Memorial Chapel, 523 S. Webster St., Naperville. Learn more about the role of adult costumed volunteers at our historic museum village located in the heart of downtown Naperville.

Volunteers play a key role in achieving the museum's mission to educate and to preserve Naperville's history. Costumed interpretive volunteers share the life and daily work of Napervillians from the early settlers to those who lived in the early 1900s. They have the opportunity to wear period-appropriate clothing, receive training about Naperville's history and learn details about the structures on Naper Settlement's 12-acre site. Staff and volunteers work together as a team for the betterment of our award-winning, nationally accredited history museum.

For more information about becoming an adult costumed volunteer, call Mary Hudspeath at (630) 305-5256.

History comes to life at Naper Settlement, an outdoor museum village, located in downtown Naperville at 523 S. Webster St. Accredited by the American Association of Museums, Naper Settlement has 30 historic structures ranging from a rustic log cabin to an elegant Victorian mansion, listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
